

This architectural site plan shows two main buildings. On the left is the Hanns-Martin-Schleyer-Halle, a large octagonal structure with a hatched interior. To its right is the Porsche-Arena, a rectangular building with a grid of vertical lines. The plan includes various site details such as parking lots, walkways, and landscaping with trees. Labels like 'Eingang' and 'Ausgang' indicate entrance and exit points, while 'Korridor' and 'Korridor 2' label internal passages. A 'Korridor' label is also present near the Porsche-Arena. The drawing uses different colors and line styles to represent various architectural elements and site features.
